

Meet The Farmers

Blue Hills Orchard

Blue Hills Orchard in Wallingford, CT, has been a labor of love for the Henry family since 1904. What began as William Henry's retirement dream is now one of the largest orchards in the state, still operated on the original 318 acres. Today, fifth-generation farmer Eric Henry continues the legacy, bringing a modern touch to a deep-rooted tradition. Sardilli Produce has proudly partnered with the Henry family for over 30 years.
